ALL OUT BRANDS SAFETY ACTION PLAN

The All Out Brands is focused on providing all of our guests with a safe enviroment and the peace of mind knowing that their safety and security is part of our planning process. We work hand-in-hand with each venue to make sure that security and medical policies are met or exceeded for both thevenue and All Out Brands. Please see a description below for our current safety requirements.

Police Presence:

We strive to ensure that each event will have uniformed, armed, police officers in attendance. These officers are located throughout the competition area including the concourses, entry points, and inside event halls. If anyone at our event sees or hears any suspicious activity or behaviors, please approach our police or security officers and report it right away. See something, say something!

Emergency Medical Technicians and Medical Equipment:

EMT's or trained medical personnel are placed accordingly at each event based on the venue guidelines. All Out Brands prefers to have these personnel located between the warm-up area and the main performance floor to have quick access to any athlete that needs attention. Some venues do require that these medical personnel are located in a specific room for medical privacy and to be accessible by all guests of the venue.

In addition to EMTs, All Out Brands keeps an AED located at the announcers table, located near the main performance stage. Each venue will have several AEDs on property, as well as the medical personnel assigned to the event.

Misconduct Policy:

All Out Brands has a zero-tolerance policy for any individual causing a disruption to our attendees or the venue, or is exhibiting aggressive behavior, or endangering any guest of the event, venue, or hotel. Individuals may be removed from the premises and could result in a ban from All Out Brands events and possibly from the venue.

Alcohol Policy:

All Out Brands has a no alcohol policy at all events which includes bringing alcohol onto the premises.

No Alcohol sales will take place in our performance areas or leased event space within our venues.
